

Let's Talk Disability

The Social Model of Disability

Disability is having an impairment that interacts with barriers in the environment that stops someone from participating equally in society.

Impairment

Long term change in the structure or function of the body.

Barriers

Obstacles in a community that limit participation.

Participation

Taking part in something in a meaningful way.

SHONAQUIP SOCIAL ENTERPRISE

Enabling inclusion

